

City Ministry Partners

Through a unique partnership between suburban and urban Christian leaders who share the same concern for people in need, City Ministry serves organizations and churches that provide basic needs for low-income people in the inner city.

Inner-City Church Partners

Agape Christian Church – Agape is an inner city church in Denver that provides spiritual guidance along with help for the physical needs of the people in their surrounding area. They have a community outreach service center, Charity House, summer day camp, community kitchen, young people's bible club, teen worship, a jobs ministry, and many other programs. Contact Robert Woolfolk at 303.296.2454.

Anchor of Hope – Anchor of Hope led by Ken Roberts is an inner city church located west of City Park in Denver, and provides spiritual guidance and meets the needs of individuals in their surrounding area. Anchor of Hope has had a rewarding partnership with CHCC for about 25 years in ensuring their mission is accomplished. Contact Ken Roberts at 303.861.4597.

His Love Fellowship – At His Love Fellowship their goal as a church is to love, train, and help the family of God in West Denver. Their services, mid-week dinner, bible studies, and, children and family ministries are some of the ways they strengthen and encourage God's people. Contact Phil Abeyta at 303.623.1623.

New Life in Christ – At New Life in Christ they believe that the plight of the poor and oppressed weighs heavily on the heart of God and that the inner-city men are the most broken element in society and are the key to the growth of any church that ministers there. Programs include evangelism, youth and children, service to relieve the suffering, service to the creation of stronger families, and prayer blanketing. Contact the church office at 303.237.9519.

Scum of the Earth – Scum of the Earth Church is a church for those that feel "left out and right brained" in inner city Denver. Scum wants to connect with people who have no interest in "church" by society's definition and have a unique calling to reach out to our otherwise unreached friends. Contact 303.832.2586.

Inner-City Ministry Partners

Angel Tree Camping – Angel Tree has identified that children need love all year long. With Angel Tree camping they partner with local churches to send prisoners' kids to one week at overnight Christian camp. Contact Gary Sokol at 303.325.8331.

Crossroads of the Rockies – Crossroads is committed to providing a safe haven where children can learn and grow, where the lost can find healing and direction, where the poor and needy can get relief and assistance, and all can experience the miracle of God's love. Contact Jim Watters at 303.922.8772.

Denver Rescue Mission – The Mission provides shelter, food, clothing, education, Christian teaching, and work discipline to meet individuals at their physical and spiritual points of need. Contact the Rescue Mission at 303.297.1815.

Denver Rescue Mission: Champa Champions – Cherry Hills partners with Champa House in providing long-term help toward self-sufficiency in a residential setting for single women with dependent children. Contact Carrie Daniel at 303.325.8306.

Denver Rescue Mission: The Crossing Crew – Cherry Hills partners with the Denver Rescue Mission in serving men and families as they transition from homelessness to a life of hope and self-sufficiency. Contact Gary Sokol at 303.325.8331.

Denver Rescue Mission: Family and Senior Homeless Initiative (FSHI) – Since 2006, Cherry Hills have answered the call to serve by “elevating the urban poor” and providing mentor teams to be paired with FSHI participants and provide first month’s rent and deposit, as well as mentoring, with the end goal of achieving self-sufficiency and sustainable permanent housing. Contact Gary Sokol at 303.325.8331.

Denver Street School – Denver Street School serves troubled youth in Denver who have dropped out or been expelled from the public school system by sharing the Love of Christ and challenging them to their highest potential. Contact 303.860.1702.

Friends for Youth – Friends for Youth exists to assist youth on probation and teen moms by recruiting and training community volunteer mentors who bring hope and encouragement through the Spirit of Christ through committed friendship. Contact 303.756.9285, Ext. 105.

His Hands Christian Ministry – His Hands serves those in need with a small food and clothing ministry in Englewood, as well as offering prayer to everyone they meet. Call 303.783.3777.

Joshua Station – Joshua Station, a program operating under Mile High Ministries, is a faith-based community that helps people who are homeless or in unstable housing situation make the transition to healthy interdependent living. Call 303.839.5198, Ext. 3.

Prison Ministry – Prison Ministry was designed to reach out to inmates with the Love of Jesus. There are various opportunities for men and women to serve including bible studies, mentor youth and adults both in prison and upon release, visiting and worshiping with inmates and providing Christmas gifts thru Angel Tree for children of inmates. Contact Gary Sokol at 303.325.8331.

Providence Network – Provides transitional and affordable housing programs that offer food and shelter, individual counseling, group therapy, life skills development, education and job assistance, and spiritual growth with the goal of stopping the generational cycle of homelessness, addictions, and abuse. Call 303.860.8404.

Restoration Outreach – Programs consist of Prodigal Gatherings and Heart-to-Hand Resource Center dedicated to serving the community of East Colfax in West Aurora and East Denver and working closely with Restoration Worship Center, their church partner. Contact Kent Scroggs at 303.470.1692.

Save Our Youth – The mission of Save Our Youth is to intervene in the lives of at-risk youth through mentor relationships that provide the skills for success in spiritual, educational, and emotional development. Contact Jill Meyer at 303.455.1126, Ext. 23 or David Medina at 303.455.1126, Ext. 15.

Street’s Hope – Street’s Hope was created to assist women desiring to leave sexually oriented businesses. Clients include women working in prostitution, exotic dancing, and pornography. The ministry offers housing and housing assistance, individual counseling, group counseling, life skills training, case management, mentoring and Bible studies. Contact Karen Allen at 303.433.2712.

Whiz Kids – Whiz Kids pairs kids with caring adults who tutor and mentor them in the spirit of Christ. Kids are elementary and middle-school-age students who need additional literacy help to assist them in achieving their goals as well as encourage success while increasing self-esteem and self-confidence. Call 303.504.9449.

The logo for Cherry Hills Community Church features a stylized, flowing script for the word "Cherry" above the words "Community Church" in a smaller, sans-serif font, and "Hills" in a large, bold, serif font to the right.

Missions & Outreach